Financial Cents*

recognized as one of the accounting industry's most trusted workflow management software providers, has launched a new solo plan designed specifically for solo accounting and bookkeeping firm owners. This innovative plan, priced at only $9 per month on an annual billing cycle, delivers a full suite of essential workflow management tools tailored to meet the unique needs of solo practitioners.

Solo firm owners often face significant challenges in managing their practice, from keeping track of work priorities to ensuring that client information and documents are readily accessible. Financial Cents' new solo plan addresses these issues by providing solo practitioners with a comprehensive, user-friendly platform that integrates all the tools they need to stay organized and productive.

The solo plan includes:

- Workflow Dashboard: A central hub that offers an at-a-glance overview of all tasks, helping solo practitioners prioritize their work and ensure nothing slips through the cracks.
- Client Portal: Enhances communication by providing clients with a secure platform to receive updates, share documents, and communicate with their accountant or bookkeeper.
- Time Tracking: Allows practitioners to track billable hours effortlessly, ensuring accurate billing and time management.
- Client CRM: A client relationship management tool that stores all client information in one easily accessible place, streamlining the management of client data.
- Client Requests: Simplifies the process of gathering and managing client information, reducing the time spent on administrative tasks.

- File Sharing: A secure and efficient way to exchange documents with clients, ensuring that all necessary files are readily available when needed.
- Document Management: Centralizes document storage, making it easy to find and retrieve important documents at any time.

“Solo practitioners are often overwhelmed by the demands of running their practice, especially when it comes to managing their workflow and client interactions,” said Shahram Zarshenas, CEO of Financial Cents. “Our new solo plan is designed to simplify these processes, providing solo practitioners with the tools they need to stay on top of their work and manage their clients more effectively—all for just $9 a month.”

Solo plan is live for just $9/mo

The first and only full-featured accounting work management solution for solo firms.

Financial Cents Accounting Workflow Management Solo Plan

The solo plan is an ideal solution for solo practitioners currently using generic project management tools or cumbersome spreadsheets. It offers a streamlined, accounting-focused alternative that is easy to use and affordable, without the need for costly and complex software that solo practitioners may not fully utilize.

To make it even easier for solo practitioners to get started, Financial Cents is offering a 14-day free trial of the solo plan. This trial allows users to explore the platform’s features and see how it can help them better manage their workflow and grow their business.
