“Being recognized as a Top 100 3PL provider is a testament to our team's hard work and our clients' trust,” stated Adam Anderson, Vice President of RSI Logistics. “This is our fourth year receiving this award, and we are appreciative of Inbound Logistics for recognizing the expertise and solutions we bring to the rail shipping industry. We are excited for what 2024 and beyond holds.”

RSI Logistics has stood out within the rail freight industry by continually investing in advanced rail management solutions, focusing on optimizing shipper's logistics through software and services developed by rail experts, for rail experts. They strive to address the challenges their clients face amongst the complex rail logistics landscape.

Inbound Logistics' meticulous selection process for its Top 100 list includes comprehensive evaluations of submitted information, personal interviews, and thorough online research, comparing each candidate against modern global supply chain and logistics challenges. Out of several hundred companies vying for a spot, RSI Logistics was chosen for its multifaceted operational capabilities and experience, driven by demands for operational excellence.

"Inbound Logistics is proud to recognize RSI as a 2024 Top 100 3PL Provider," said Felecia Stratton, Editor of Inbound Logistics. "RSI Logistics has proven itself a leader in the rail logistics industry. Their goal above all else is to help their shippers optimize their rail shipping, improve their operational efficiencies, and save time and money. They have demonstrated a proven ability to do so."
