

Diamond Scientific CEO Hits Jiu Jitsu Blue Belt at 70

COCOA, FL, UNITED STATES, August 13, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Ramon Rivera, CEO of Diamond Scientific, earned his Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu (BJJ) Blue Belt at a ceremony held at Gracie Barra Jiu Jitsu in Rockledge. This achievement comes after two years of dedicated training, during which Rivera faced and overcame several injuries to reach this milestone.

Reflecting on his accomplishment, Rivera said, "After two years with a few injuries, I was finally able to accomplish my goal of receiving my Blue Belt. I'm humbled to have earned this under the tutorship of Professor Alex Nascimento, a 4th-degree black belt, and with the support of Master Carlos Gracie, Jr., founder of Gracie Barra. The dedication from the leadership at Gracie Barra, the well-structured training plans, and the ability to advance based on merit were incredibly rewarding. They don't give these belts away—you have to work hard and earn them."

“

I encourage everyone I know not to give up on their dreams and to pursue them no matter what age”
