

Keynote speaker Jeff Kagan on changing wireless and telecom industry

Understanding new growth opportunities like AI, and new challenges that are reshaping wireless, telecom, pay TV, streaming and more

ATLANTA, GA, USA, August 14, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Well-known and respected Industry Analyst, Tech Columnist and Tech Influencer Jeff Kagan is available to speak at your upcoming meeting.

Over more than three decades, Kagan has built a strong and trusted brand name in the industry. He has become one of a select few powerful and influential, thought leaders in the wireless, telecom and communications technology industry.

Speaking in plain English, he helps executives, workers, customers, business customers, investors and more, better understand the new and changing growth-path the industry and competitors are on, where we are today and where we are heading tomorrow.

Jeff Kagan is now available to share his insights while giving a Keynote Speech or presentation at your upcoming meeting, seminar or conference, large or small.

Kagan helps company's kick-off their conference or meeting with big-picture commentary and thinking from a leading voice in the industry, on the changes which are reshaping the industry, and what we must know to stay on the growth-curve.

He connects with the audience on a personal level. He not only inspires the group, but also clears away the fog of confusion created by the loud and chaotic marketplace around them.

Kagan discusses how communications technology is changing, again. And how new technology like AI and others will not only impact companies and their customers, but also give them a chance to cut through the chaos and understand, to gain a competitive advantage.

Jeff Kagan Industry Analyst,
Columnist, Influencer

I help executives better understand the changing direction the industry is now headed, so they can keep their company on the growth-curve."
