Roberto Isaias highlights the invaluable collection of colonial and republican art

The Nahim Isaiás Museum is distinguished by its collection of colonial art, which includes fundamental pieces of the Escuela Quiteña, recognized for its detail and spirituality.

These works reflect the fusion between European Christian iconography and indigenous artistic traditions. In addition, it presents a significant collection of 19th century republican art, which documents the cultural and political transition of post-independence Ecuador.

Temporary exhibitions of contemporary art supported by Roberto Isaias

Beyond its permanent exhibitions, the museum is a dynamic space that promotes contemporary art through its temporary exhibitions.

Through these exhibitions, Roberto Isaias allows emerging artists to present their works, generating a dialogue between the past and the present.

The museum also includes a documentary center and multiple spaces dedicated to educational activities, reinforcing its mission to educate through art.

Roberto Isaias and his contribution to the community through the museum

The Nahim Isaias Museum is more than just an exhibition space; it is a symbol of Roberto Isaias' commitment to the community of Guayaquil.

His philanthropic work has not only allowed the conservation of important works of art, but has also created a space where the community can access culture, participate in educational activities and enjoy events that enrich the social life of the city.

"Art is essential to understanding our past and shaping our future. With the Nahím Isaías Museum, we seek not only to preserve, but also to inspire new generations through art."

Roberto Isaias

A cultural pillar in the heart of Guayaquil

The Nahim Isaias Museum is strategically located in the Administration Plaza, an emblematic place surrounded by heritage buildings that highlight the rich history of Guayaquil.

It is not only a cultural destination, but also a meeting point for the community, hosting events and activities that strengthen the social fabric of the city.

With its wide educational and cultural offerings, the Roberto Isaias Museum continues to be a reference for the cultural development of Ecuador.
