“Nature’s Palette: Art Inspired by the Earth” features innovative transportive installations from regional artists showcasing various mediums, including 2D paintings, 3D sculpture, glass works, and more. The exhibition hosts 42 regional artists showcasing over 70 works of art – with special features from notable artists Jill Hotchkiss, Ernesto Kunde, Marleen DeWaele, Ana Tomayo, Carin Wagner, Milena Arango, Nicolee Galluccio, Isabel Gouveia and more – all curated by the Delray Beach DDA’s Cultural Arts Director, Marusca Gatto.

The opening will be in conjunction with First Friday Art Walk, on September 6, from 6 to 9 p.m. and feature live music, light refreshments and special presentations from the artists along with Meet & Greets.

"The exhibition includes captivating creative expressions that draw inspiration from the beauty of the natural world," said Gatto. "In this exploration, artists dive into various techniques to uncover the profound impact art has on our connection with nature. It will showcase the vibrant world surrounding us with a nod to environmental concerns."

The Cornell Art Museum is free and open to the public. Hours are: Wednesday 12 to 5 p.m.; Thursday & Friday 12 to 7 p.m.; Saturday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Sunday 12 to 5 p.m.
