Surge in Tourism Numbers

According to a recent article from McKinsey & Company, New York City welcomed over 62 million visitors in 2023, recovering to 93 percent of pre-pandemic levels. Projections indicate that the city will surpass these numbers by 2025. The city's unique combination of history, culture, diversity, grit, and glamour continues to draw visitors from all over the world. The article highlights the evolving preferences of modern tourists who seek authentic, one-of-a-kind experiences beyond Manhattan's iconic landmarks.

Riga Global Travel & Limousine Service Steps Up

In response to these burgeoning numbers and shifting tourist preferences, Riga Global Travel & Limousine Service has taken significant steps to enhance and expand its offerings aimed at the tourist sector. Understanding the need for personalized and enriching travel experiences, Riga Global is providing services that extend beyond traditional attractions.

Exclusive Offer

In recognition of the renewed enthusiasm for travel and exploration, Riga Global has offered a 10% discount on all tourist-related limousine rides from now until the end of Fall. This includes not only visits to iconic places like Central Park, Times Square, and the Statue of Liberty but also day trips to locations outside the city such as the Hudson Valley, Long Island's North Fork, and Connetcut's wine country. Tourists can use the code 'TOURNYC2024' when requesting a quote for this discount.
