Executive Director*

Photography, this initiative will offer free, professional family photo shoots for three fortunate families to honor grandparents and grandparent-like figures.

Amma Akwabi-Ameyaw's personal story is the heart of this project. "Growing up, I never had any nice professional photos with my grandparents, and looking back, I wish I had more to share with my children. "I had a very special bond with my grandparents, and I often wish I had captured more family memories through photography."

Driven by this longing for connection, Amma wants to ensure others can capture and cherish these invaluable family moments. "I want to help others hold onto the precious moments with their grandparents that I never got to experience," she says. "This project is about celebrating the irreplaceable role grandparents play in our lives and preserving those memories for future generations."

Nomination Process: Community members are invited to nominate their grandparents or grandparent-like figures for a complimentary family photo shoot. Nominations will be accepted through August 30th.

Selection: Three chosen nominees will enjoy a professional photo session with Tiffany Johnson of Tiffany Johnson Photography, whose photography beautifully captures heartfelt moments. The three families will be selected the week of Grandparents' Day, September 8th, with more information on how to schedule their family photo shoots.
