Held at White Park on 3885 Market Street in Riverside, CA this event promises a rich tapestry of music, dance, and community spirit.

A Heartfelt Mission

Gabriel Vasquez, founder of Courageous Heart, intimately understands life’s pain and hardships.

Having entered the foster care system at the age of 5 and reunited with his mother at 11, he experienced firsthand the challenges of such a journey. However, darkness did not overcome him. Instead, Gabriel developed a positive mindset, cultivating a compassionate and loving heart, particularly toward children, youth, homelessness, and families in need. Resilience and transformation emerged from a broken heart that refused to give up. Beauty was born from the depths of his woundedness and has developed a strong faith that deeply influences his vision for various communities in need. Gabriel has organized numerous events in Southern California, Las Vegas, Chicago, Mexicali, Tijuana, Rosarito, Valle de Guadalupe, and Mazatlan, Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, dedicated to supporting those facing adversity.

The festival “Mi Vida Hermosa” embodies the Courageous Heart mission, providing opportunities to network with other organizations to support families navigating the foster care system (Foster
