It's simple! Millionaires think and act differently than others!”

James Malinchak

"If you're ready to change your mindset and grow your business instead of just sitting on your assets and wishing it would all come true, then it's time to start thinking and acting like a millionaire," he said.

One of his tactics is to consistently surround yourself on a regular basis with people who are serious about trying to double and triple their incomes each and every year.

"You will be amazed by the incredible amount of ideas that you consistently receive that are easy to implement that you could never learn on your own. I belong to a mastermind group where we have telephone meetings and 3 live in-person retreats where we focus on sharing ideas to help each other grow our businesses. One idea I received from a mastermind partner has added at least an extra $10,000-$15,000 to my bank account per month. And, I can honestly say that I never would have thought of this idea," he said.

Another tactic is to work with a business coach who has achieved great success.

"You don't even realize the amount of money you are losing out on right now because you haven't been mentored and coached by someone on a consistent monthly basis who is playing at a higher level than you," he said. "Your success coach should be able to quickly tell you how to make big money."
