

Proposition 6: California's Historic 2024 Vote to End Involuntary Servitude

A State's Humane Decision to Choose Dignity Over Modern-Day Slavery.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, August 20, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- On the November 2024 ballot, California voters will have the opportunity to vote on Proposition 6, a groundbreaking amendment aimed at abolishing involuntary servitude as punishment for crime from the state's constitution. This measure, if passed, would remove outdated and unjust language that allows for forced labor in the state's penal system, aligning California with a growing movement across the nation to end such practices.

Proposition 6 has been championed by Sam Brown, the founder of the non-profit organization 10pprogram.org, which has been at the forefront of advocating for criminal justice reform and human rights. Brown, a tireless advocate for equity and justice, believes this measure is critical to correcting historical injustices that have disproportionately affected marginalized communities, particularly people of color.

"Proposition 6 is not just about removing archaic language from our

Logo for the 10P Program

Samual N. Brown along with Assemblymember and CCBC Chair Lori D. Wilson, Assemblymember Mia Bonta, and End Slavery In California Act Coalition at California Capitol Building laws; it's about standing up for human dignity and ensuring that our state's justice system reflects our values," said Sam Brown. "This is a moral imperative for California, and I encourage every voter to stand with us in making history this November."

Proposition 6 will join other states such as Vermont, Oregon, and Colorado, which have successfully passed similar measures to remove exceptions for involuntary servitude from their constitutions. The campaign for Prop 6 has garnered widespread support from civil rights organizations, labor unions, and faith-based communities across California.

Key Information:

What: Vote on Proposition 6 to remove involuntary servitude as punishment for crime from California's constitution.

When: November 2024

Why: To align California's legal framework with modern values of justice and equality, and to end the practice of forced labor in the state's penal system.

#####

About 10PProgram.org:

“

In 1908 we drove a Model T.
In 2024 we drive a Model S.
How can we recognize a need to evolve the automobile we drive, but not the laws that govern our lives? It's past time. Slavery isn't the answer”

Samual Nathaniel Brown

Founded by Sam Brown, 10pprogram.org is dedicated to advancing justice and equity through advocacy, education, and reform initiatives. The organization works closely with communities, policymakers, and other stakeholders to drive meaningful change in the criminal justice system.

For more information on Proposition 6 and how to get involved, visit 10pprogram.org.

Media Contact:

Erica-lane B
publicistericalane@gmail.com

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

ACA 8 END SLAVERY IN CALIFORNIA ACT

PASSES

SENATE FLOOR

 LORI D. WILSON
Assemblywoman, District 11

This November Californians voters will have an opportunity to amend their state constitution and take a much-needed step towards placing rehabilitation of their carceral population over forced labor

Samual Brown
10P Programs and Solutions
+1 530-341-3226
email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/736385848>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2024 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.