Whether you're a procurement professional seeking the best cooperative agreements or a vendor aiming to maximize opportunities, this tool provides a robust, user-friendly platform to streamline your search. And it is free to procurement professionals.

Expanding Horizons with Shareable Contracts

Continuing to take procurement intelligence to the next level, Beacon Bid's Shareable Contract Search opens the door to a vast growing database of over 125,000 active contracts currently engaged by state, local, and educational agencies across the United States. Filterable by state, agency type, and other critical criteria, this tool is designed to simplify the process of locating relevant contracts while providing detailed information on pricing, vendors, and agency contacts.

What sets the Shareable Contract Search apart is its integration with Beacon Bid's premium, groundbreaking Market Research module. For users who opt for this advanced feature, the data within the Shareable Contract Search is expanded to include extensive pricing details and contract documents, offering an in-depth view of the procurement landscape that is unmatched in the industry.

Beacon Bid's Research Suite: Comprehensive Tools for Procurement Excellence

Beacon Bid's Research Suite comprises a full spectrum of tools designed to meet the diverse needs of procurement professionals:

* RFP Archive: Access millions of bid and RFP templates to streamline the creation of solicitation documents.
* Procure AI: Leverage AI tools to generate and review complex scopes, drawing on procurement-specific insights from the RFP Archive.

* Free Cooperative Contract Search: Explore contracts from cooperative purchasing organizations, including over 20 organizations considered the major players in the coop space.

* Free Shareable Contracts: Search over 125,000, and increasing, active contracts across state, local, and educational agencies nationwide.

* Market Research of Vendor Awards and Contract Details: Analyze over $800 billion in awarded contracts, including vendor performance histories and financial details.

* Agency Records and Meeting Transcript Searches: Access a wide array of agency records and meeting transcripts for deeper insights into procurement discussions and activities.

A Game-Changer in Contract Search and Accessibility

Together, these new tools represent far and away the largest archive of active contracts available in a single platform, covering tens of thousands of agencies with data growing daily. By providing free and easy access to this wealth of information, Beacon Bid is empowering agencies and vendors alike to navigate the complex world of procurement with greater efficiency and confidence.

"Beacon Bid is committed to transforming how procurement data is accessed and utilized," said Josh Schwartzbeck, Chief Technology Officer at Beacon Bid. "With the launch of our Free Cooperative Contract Search and Shareable Contract Search, we're providing the most comprehensive and accessible procurement data archive ever assembled. Whether you're looking for cooperative agreements or exploring active contracts across the nation, these tools offer unparalleled access and insights that will drive smarter, faster, compliance-focused decision-making."
