"I'm Flying High" was composed, written, sung, and produced by S. J. Jananiy. While universal in concept, it is a very personal and heartfelt proclamation of spirituality, describing her experiences and her connection with the one and only Godfather Almighty Authority Supreme Soul through the song, and enunciating the key roles played by the Supreme Soul and the impact of the Almighty's knowledge into Jananiy's life and career. Lyrically, the song focuses on faithful expressions such as "Supreme Soul and a Soul, I'm flying high with the power of Almighty Authority Supreme Soul who is my father, companion, and the ultimate being with whom every second of life's journey goes on."

The lyrics of the song are based on her studies with Brahma Kumaris World Spiritual University, and Jananiy explains in her lyrics how her intense connection with the Supreme Soul uplifts her to "fly high." The Hindi version, "Meri Oonchi Udaan," is written by Janak Kaviratna, and the Tamil version, "Naan Vaanil Parappen," is written by Rameshvaidya.

Jananiy collaborated with the Europe-based musicians known as the Musiversal's Session Musicians to record the guitars (Electric & Acoustic), bass guitar, cello, drums, and additional keys/synth for recording this song. The song is mixed by S. J. Jananiy at her own 3 Dot Recording Studios, based in Chennai, India, mastered by Gethin John of Mastering World in London. The Dolby Atmos and Spatial Audio Immersive version was mixed and mastered by award-winning, certified Atmos Mixing Engineer Jeff Silverman of Palette Music Studio in Nashville Tennessee, USA.
