

Indiana Digital Learning School (INDLS) Offers Free Information Session for Indiana Families

Learn about enrollment, financial support, and how INDLS supports every student's unique learning needs

INDIANA, UNITED STATES, August 20, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Announced today, Indiana Digital Learning School (INDLS) is hosting a free, virtual information session for prospective students and families. The webinar, scheduled for August 22 at 5 p.m. ET, invites families to log in to learn about enrollment, financial support, and how INDLS supports every student's unique learning needs.

"At INDLS, we're committed to the academic success of every student," said Liz Sliger, Executive Director, INDLS. "This information session will be tailored for families curious about the transition to online school, sharing how our school works with families to support each child's academic success."

INDLS offers an individualized approach to learning, delivering rich, challenging curriculum designed to assist students who seek different pathways to education. The state-licensed teachers are experienced in creating an engaging online environment.

The Information Session takes place virtually on Thursday, August 22, 2024, at 5 p.m. ET. Attendees are encouraged to register to attend.
