

Third Wave Digital Creates Tri-County EMC's Newly Redesigned Website

Third Wave Digital, a leading digital marketing and web development agency, is pleased to announce the completion of a new website redesign for Tri-County EMC.

MACON, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, August 20, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Third Wave Digital, a leading digital marketing and web development agency, is pleased to announce the completion of a new website redesign for Tri-County EMC. The newly launched website exemplifies TWD's expertise in delivering innovative and impactful online solutions to clients in the energy sector.

Featuring a sleek and modern design, the new website redesign offers visitors an enhanced user experience with improved navigation and accessibility. Designed to be a comprehensive online resource for potential and returning customers, users can easily explore all the services Tri-County EMC has to offer.

The project involved a significant overhaul of the site's architecture, enhancing content organization and navigation for seamless user experience. TWD also provided a modern, visually appealing design that compliments and amplifies the existing brand image of Tri-County EMC, while prioritizing mobile-friendliness and ADA accessibility compliance.

This marks the third successful website redesign completed by Third Wave Digital for Tri-County EMC since 2005. We value our partnership with Tri County EMC and as technology and needs change, we are always committed to providing them with the next best website redesign.
