

Back-to-School 101 With Kelsey Griffin

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, August 21, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Looking to get ahead of the class this school year? Beauty and Lifestyle Expert, Kelsey Griffin, has done the homework and is sharing this season's top back-to-school essentials.

As we head into the back-to-school season, it's important to keep health in top shape. Airborne's new and improved formula is here to help, packed with seven essential ingredients for immune support. And don't forget to pick up some beauty essentials! With the change in seasons, skin might start feeling a bit dry, so it's a great time to exfoliate and moisturize. Tree Hut just launched its new musically inspired fall collection featuring new scents. Parents can help fuel kids' school days with and delicious snacks. Black Forest Gummy Bears are the perfect choice made with real fruit juice and are now even juicier!
