

TrustRadius Recognizes Jobma's Corporate Social Responsibility Initiatives with Tech Cares 2024 Award

Jobma has been recognized by TrustRadius for its outstanding efforts in sustainable practices, employee-centric initiatives, and community engagement.

MINNETONKA, MINNESOTA, UNITED STATES, August 21, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jobma, a leading

AI video interviewing platform, announced today that it has won a Tech Cares award for its outstanding efforts in sustainable practices, employee-centric initiatives, and community engagement. The Tech Cares 2024 Award, presented by TrustRadius, acknowledges the company's outstanding efforts in integrating corporate social responsibility, sustainable practices, and employee well-being into its core business operations. TrustRadius is the most trusted review site for tech businesses, serving both buyers and vendors.

We are thrilled to receive this prestigious award, which validates our mission to empower individuals and communities through meaningful employment opportunities.”

Krishna Kant

In their nominations, Jobma employees, have written about the flexible time-off policy in the company, employee commute solutions that contribute to sustainability goals, and diversity in the workforce - with nearly half of the workforce being women. Others have praised the giving back efforts that include donations to NGOs, children's care, education and healthcare, and newborn gift programs for parents.

"We are thrilled to receive this prestigious award, which validates our mission to empower individuals and communities through meaningful employment opportunities," said Krishna Kant, Managing Partner at Jobma. "This recognition is a testament to the hard work and innovation of our team."

The key areas of social corporate responsibility TrustRadius focused on were:

- Volunteerism
- Robust diversity, equity, and inclusion programs
- Charitable donations and fundraising
- Workplace culture, including model support for in-office and remote employees
- Demonstrable support for environmental sustainability

The Tech Cares Award serves as a trust indicator for buyers in the tech community. When a company receives this recognition, it demonstrates a commitment to corporate social responsibility. Buyers can feel more confident and assured when considering products or services from these award-winning organizations.
