“Angela's recognition is a testament to her relentless passion and commitment to justice,” said Dale Swope, Managing Attorney of Swope, Rodante P.A. “Angela's expertise as a top plaintiff attorney, taking on large corporations with skill and determination, along with her strong leadership and deep compassion for her clients, truly set her apart. We are incredibly proud of her being named among the top woman trial lawyers in the nation.”

The National Trial Lawyers organization provides members with access to cutting-edge training, networking, and educational opportunities through its annual Trial Lawyers Summit in Miami and ten other national conferences. Their goal is to empower attorneys by offering resources that might otherwise be difficult to access, while also fostering connections among civil plaintiff and criminal defense attorneys.

For Angela Rodante, this recognition is more than just an accolade; it's a reflection of her dedication to the advancement of women in the legal profession. "It's an honor to be included among such outstanding women," said Angela Rodante. "As a mentor and leader, I'm committed to paving the way for other women trial lawyers to excel and thrive in this profession. This acknowledgment reinforces my mission to inspire the next generation of women attorneys while continuing to provide top-tier advocacy for my clients."

Swope, Rodante P.A. remains committed to supporting the legal community, and Angela Rodante's recognition by The National Trial Lawyers highlights the firm's ongoing dedication to excellence and leadership in trial law.
