The 9th annual Data Center Anti Conference, #DCACLive2024 (DCAC) Kicks Off with Sold-Out Charity Golf Tournament to Benefit Folds of Honor Foundation

AUSTIN, TX, USA, August 22, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The 9th annual Data Center Anti Conference, #DCACLive2024, is set to begin with an exciting and fully sold-out charity golf tournament on Tuesday, September 24th, at the beautiful River Place Country Club in Austin, Texas. This highly anticipated event brings together industry leaders for a day of networking, camaraderie, and giving back under the warm Austin sun.

The DCAC Charity Golf Tournament has sold out of both participant spots and sponsorships, reflecting the incredible support from the data center community. All proceeds from the tournament will go to the Folds of Honor Foundation, a nonprofit organization that provides life-changing scholarships to the families of fallen or disabled U.S. military members and first responders.

We are thrilled to see such overwhelming support for this year's tournament”
Kirk Offel, Founder of DCAC

“We are thrilled to see such overwhelming support for this year's tournament,” said Kirk Offel, CEO of OVERWATCH Mission Critical and founder of DCAC. “This event is always a highlight of DCAC, offering a unique opportunity for our community to come together, have some fun, and make a meaningful impact. We extend our deepest thanks to all of our sponsors and participants for their generosity."
