

Kunda Kids Set to Inspire and Entertain Children at the London Summer Festival

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, August 22, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Kunda Kids, an award-winning children's publishing, EdTech, and media company, is thrilled to announce its London Summer Festival in partnership with Gradely, and sponsored by LemFi. The festival is set to take place on Saturday, 24th August 2024, at The Shaw Theatre, Kings Cross, London. This highly anticipated event promises to be London's biggest children's festival, celebrating African culture, fun-learning, and storytelling.

This year's festival, with a morning session and an afternoon session starting at 10:30 am and ending at 6:00 pm, will offer a variety of engaging activities designed to inspire and entertain children and families. Attendees will be treated to live theatre performances, a Kunda and Friends screening, face painting, arts and crafts, and a storytelling corner. The festival will also host special guests, including Playworker Amber, a live DJ, and many more - ensuring a fun-filled day for all.

Kunda Kids is renowned for bringing African stories to life through its diverse range of books, apps and media tailored for early learners (ages 0-11). The London Summer Festival is an extension of Kunda Kids' mission to promote diversity, inclusion and equity in children's media. The festival promises to provide a fun-learning environment, encourage a love for literacy, and highlight African and Caribbean leads in children's media.

Gradely, Africa's leading EdTech platform will also showcase its innovative approach to personalised learning, offering insights into how it uses technology to support children's learning through adaptive lessons and interactive content.
