Family-Friendly Fun for All Ages

This year's festival is designed with families in mind, offering a wide range of films that are not only thought-provoking but also suitable for all age groups. HS3FF'24 is committed to creating a welcoming atmosphere where families can enjoy the magic of storytelling together. From shorts that will delight the youngest viewers to inspiring stories that resonate with teens and adults, our diverse lineup has something for everyone.

A Star-Studded Opening Night

The festival kicks off with a spectacular Opening Night on October 24th at The AllNatt Venue. Walk the purple carpet, enjoy gourmet food and live entertainment, and get an exclusive first look at some of the year's most anticipated short films. It's a night of glamour, fun, and celebration—perfect for the entire family.

A Weekend of Cinematic Discovery

Over the weekend, HS3FF'24 will immerse attendees in a rich variety of short films spanning genres and styles. Each film block will be followed by engaging Q&A sessions with the filmmakers, offering insights into the creative process. Panel discussions with industry leaders will further explore the art of short filmmaking, making this a must-attend event for aspiring filmmakers and movie lovers alike.

Gala Night: An Elegant Family Affair

The festival culminates on October 27th with our Star-Studded Gala Night, an event that promises elegance and excitement. Families are invited to enjoy a night of award-winning films, a lavish dinner, and an exclusive after-party—all within a family-friendly environment. It's a unique opportunity to celebrate the best in short filmmaking while creating lasting memories with your loved ones.
