

Winners Announced at the 11th Annual Location Managers Guild International Awards

"Oppenheimer" and "Mission Impossible: Dead Reckoning - Part 1" Are Motion Picture Winners at the Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts.

BEVERLY HILLS, CA, UNITED STATES, August 26, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Location Managers Guild International \(LMGI\) announced the winners of its 11th Annual LMGI Awards. The Motion Picture awards went to "Oppenheimer" (filmed throughout New Mexico) and "Mission Impossible: Dead Reckoning - Part 1" (filmed in Norway, the United Kingdom and Italy). The Television Series winners were "Fallout" (filmed in Utah, New York and Namibia), "Fargo" (filmed in Alberta, Canada), and "Ripley" (filmed around Italy). Toyota: "Present from the Past" (shot in Washington State) received the award for Outstanding Commercial, and Film in Iceland for "True Detective: Night Country" was awarded the Outstanding Film Commission Award.

The awards ceremony and reception took place at the Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts in Beverly Hills before an audience of 400, including LMGI members, industry executives, and the press. Actress and producer Rachael Harris ("Suits," "Diary of a Wimpy Kid," "The Hangover") hosted the evening. The LMGI Awards spotlight international features, television, and commercials in which the creative use of filming locations sets the tone, enriches the character and enhances the story's narrative.

The Motion Picture & Television Fund \(MPTF\), celebrating over 100 years of aiding the entertainment community, was bestowed with the LMGI Humanitarian Award, recognizing the MPTF's commitment to their exceptional work at the forefront of providing a wide range of health and social services to the entertainment community. The award was presented by Camilla Belle ("Law and Order"). Accepting on behalf of the MPTF was Jennifer Jorge, Director of Community Social Services, MPTF.

David Shephard, Vice President, Martini Film Studios, presented the Lifetime Achievement Award to Supervising Location Manager Sue Quinn, known for her work on the "Fantastic Beasts," "Harry Potter" and "Pirates of the Caribbean" franchises. Recognized for her seamless integration of real-life locations with the magical world in almost 40 films, Quinn has been a key figure in the world of Location Management for over three decades, working on some of the biggest and most successful films in Hollywood.

The Trailblazer Award was given to Location Manager Bill Bowling, known for his work on blockbuster films such as “Jupiter Ascending” and “Cloud Atlas.” This honor celebrated Bowling’s stellar trailblazing career in the production industry for over five decades, which has led him on a worldwide journey to over 95 countries. Presenting Bowling with the award was Clara Le, Location Guide Commercial Director.

Additional presenters included Helena-Alexis Seymour (“Chronicles of Jessica Wu”), Kate Linder (“Young and the Restless”), Doug Jones (“The Shape of Water,” “Pan’s Labyrinth”), Gary Hall Jr. (ten-time Olympic swimming medalist), and Jaclyn Philpott (AFCI Executive Director), among others.
