

ASCM Unveils Innovative Event App for ASCM CONNECT 2024

ASCM debuts a feature-rich mobile app for ASCM CONNECT 2024, enhancing networking, engagement, and event access, ensuring a top-tier attendee experience.

AUSTIN, TX, US, August 27, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Association for Supply Chain Management (ASCM), the global pacesetter of organizational transformation, talent development and supply chain innovation, today announced the launched of its new mobile app for ASCM CONNECT 2024: North America. Designed with a wide array of features aimed at maximizing networking opportunities, providing seamless access to event information, and boosting engagement, this app is set to be an indispensable tool for all attendees.

"ASCM CONNECT is all about fostering meaningful connections, and our new event app is designed to supercharge that experience," said ASCM CEO Abe Eshkenazi, CSCP, CPA, CSAE. "We're not just streamlining logistics; we're creating a dynamic platform where attendees can start networking, engaging, and shaping their event journey before they even arrive. It's about making ASCM CONNECT more connected, interactive, and ultimately, more valuable for everyone involved."

Key Features of the ASCM CONNECT 2024: North America App:

- Personalized Schedule: Create customized schedules of sessions and events specific to the attendee.
- Exclusive Content: Access all event-related documents in one place with Conference Docs, and easily save favorites to the Conference Bag for later.
- Interactive Maps: Navigate the event with ease using detailed maps of the venue.
- Real-Time Updates: Receive notifications about schedule changes and important announcements.
- Networking Opportunities: Connect with other attendees, speakers, and exhibitors through the app's messaging, event feed and photo sharing features.
- Gamification: Earn points and badges for using the app. Participate in an online scavenger hunt for some friendly competition among peers.

ASCM CONNECT is all about fostering meaningful connections, and our new event app is designed to supercharge that experience.”
