

Steady climb for Horaa Esports & DRS Gaming at Week 1 of 2024 PUBG MOBILE Super League CSA Fall

NEPAL, August 27, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- As Week 1 of the 2024 PUBG MOBILE Super League (PMSL) CSA Fall event concludes, Nepal's DRS Gaming and Horaa Esports have faced stiff competition to get on the leaderboard.

Horaa Esports currently sits in 5th place overall with 171 points. The team demonstrated their skill and strategy by securing three first-place wins in the 16th, 23rd, and 25th matches. With 51 placement points and an impressive 120 eliminations and accumulating 16 bonus points from Week 1, Horaa Esports has consistently performed well, often placing in the top 10. Building on this performance, the team aims to refine their strategies and climb higher in the rankings in the upcoming weeks. Players Sky and Mr. Boro earned MVP titles, highlighting their individual excellence and significant contributions to the team's success.

DRS Gaming has yet to perform to their full potential, concluding Week 1 in 11th place with 137 points. Despite securing two first-place finishes in the 2nd and 27th matches, they struggled with consistency throughout the week. With 54 placement points and 83 eliminations and 10 bonus points, DRS Gaming has shown resilience and flashes of potential. Fans are hopeful for a stronger showing in
