North America held the major share in the adult entertainment market and is expected to dominant during the forecast period.”

Roshan Deshmukh

The Global adult entertainment market is experiencing growth due to factors such as increased acceptance and normalization of adult content, advancements in technology, and expansion of the sex education industry. In recent years, the adult entertainment market size has grown rapidly for many reasons. One of the main drivers of this development is the rise in penetration of the internet and digital technology. The proliferation of high-speed internet connections and mobile devices has made it easier for consumers to access high-end content from the comfort of their homes. This, along with many companies offering streaming services, webcam shows, and other digital content, has increased demand for the adult entertainment market.

Another factor that has contributed to the adult entertainment market growth is change in attitude toward sex and sexuality. As societies around the world have become more open and accepting of different sexual orientations and lifestyles, there has been a corresponding increase in demand for adult content that reflects these diverse preferences.

The adult entertainment market is segmented into product type, gender, age group, and region. By product type, the market is classified into VHS & DVDs, magazines & books, sex toys & accessories, and adult novelties. As for gender, the market is divided into male and female. As per age group, the market is segmented into 18 to 24 year, 25 to 34 year, 35 to 44 year, and above 45 year. Region-wise, the market is analyzed across North America (the U.S., Canada, and Mexico), Europe (Germany, UK, France, Italy, Spain, Russia and the rest of Europe), Asia-Pacific (China, Japan, India, Australia, South Korea, Thailand, Singapore, and rest of Asia-Pacific), and LAMEA (Brazil, Argentina, UAE, Nigeria, South Africa, and Rest of LAMEA).

By type, the sex toys segment held the highest market share in 2022, accounting for near to three-fifth of the global adult entertainment market revenue. These products have become increasingly popular in the adult entertainment market due to their ability to enhance sexual pleasure and provide users with new and exciting experiences. However, the adult novelties segment is projected to manifest the highest CAGR of 6.0% from 2023 to 2032.

By age group, the 18 to 24 year segment held the major share in the market, accounting for more than one-third of the global adult entertainment market. This population tends to open and accept other forms of adult entertainment such as hentai, porn, and sex toys. However, 35 to 44 year segment is expected to grow with a highest CAGR of 5.6% during the forecast period.

By gender, the female segment held the highest market share in 2022, accounting for more than half of the global adult entertainment market revenue and estimated to maintain its leadership status throughout the forecast period. These buyers often look for products that meet their preferences and needs, and the industry has responded by offering a variety of products designed specifically for women. However, male segment is expected to grow with a highest CAGR of 5.5% during the forecast period.
