"The Quest Kids" has been a resounding success, with over 10,000 copies sold prior to the Kickstarter campaign and accolades pouring in from critics and families alike. The game is for 2-5 players, ages 5 years old and up and has quickly become a favorite among kids and parents. The dungeon crawler for kids is celebrated for its easy-to-learn gameplay, fun fantasy artwork, and unique game design. Reaching its funding goal in less than 24 hours, the Kickstarter campaign for "The Quest Kids: Realms of the Kingdom" is off to an impressive start.

At Treasure Falls Games, we are committed to creating high-quality games that kids love and parents appreciate. Our team, comprised of passionate dads, understands the importance of family time and the joy of shared experiences. "The Quest Kids" series is a testament to our mission: to design fantasy games that are not only fun and imaginative but also create lasting memories for families.

"We're incredibly excited to bring 'The Quest Kids: Realms of the Kingdom' to life," said Dustin McMillian, Founder of Treasure Falls Games. "This expansion is packed with new adventures that will captivate both new and returning players. As parents ourselves, we know how important it is to have games that everyone in the family can enjoy, and we're proud to offer something truly special with 'The Quest Kids'."

The Kickstarter campaign offers a variety of pledge levels and exclusive rewards for backers, including limited edition content and early access to the new expansion. Treasure Falls Games invites families and board game enthusiasts to join the adventure and help bring "The Quest Kids: Realms of the Kingdom" to gaming tables worldwide.
