Gerber and other leading professionals from around the world.

About William "Bill" Dunn:

Bill Dunn is the president and owner of CNS Cleaning Company, the country's premier commercial cleaning service, providing full-service commercial cleaning to thousands of clients each month across the United States. Before CNS Cleaning Company, Bill spent decades in the Wine and Spirits business, where he successfully recruited, hired, trained, and mentored future leaders. His ultimate dream was to one day own his own company, a dream that required years of planning, preparation, and a commitment to hard work.

Growing up on a farm, Bill learned the value of hard work early on. From mowing lawns and harvesting hay at 9 years old to working at his father's truck stop at 14, Bill carried this strong work ethic into his professional life. Despite his significant success in the corporate world, Bill knew that if he didn't make the jump into small business ownership as he approached age 50, it would only get harder to leave. So, in 2021, he and his wife Kim took the biggest financial risk yet when Bill left his management job and purchased CNS Cleaning Company. Under Bill's leadership, the Philadelphia-based business, established over 40 years ago, has doubled in just two years.

In 2021, CNS Cleaning Company had the honor of being selected to participate in the CNBC TV show "No Retreat," where key executives from different businesses undergo a bootcamp that helps them team-build through adversity while also learning vital business practices. The show was heavily promoted on NBC and the radio program Morning Joe.

One of Bill's proudest accomplishments as owner of CNS Cleaning Company has been helping others succeed. As the company expands its reach, Bill and his team remain committed to the model that success comes from serving the customer's needs at the highest level. Built from day one to be different, CNS Cleaning Company's experience, trustworthiness, and above all, customer service, set them apart from the rest.
