Founder*

For parents seeking a unique, non-cookie-cutter approach to their child's education and training, the ICL-Barnes partnership offers a personalized and holistic development path. This program is specifically tailored for families who value customized academics and elite sports training.

ICL Academy has been at the forefront of transforming education through its unique Impact Learning model, which integrates students' passions into their academic journey. By combining rigorous academic coursework with real-world applications and creative projects, ICL Academy ensures students are engaged, motivated, and prepared for success in all aspects of life.

The Barnes Tennis Center, home to the esteemed Steve Adamson Tennis Academy, will serve as the physical hub for this elite program. Located in the heart of San Diego, Barnes Tennis Center offers state-of-the-art facilities and world-class coaching, providing an ideal environment for young athletes to develop their tennis skills to the highest level.

A cornerstone of this program is the mentorship from tennis legends and world champions, including Novak Djokovic, Monica Seles, local hero James Blake, Tommy Haas, and the Bryan brothers. These renowned figures will share their personal journeys, training insights, and secrets to success, offering invaluable inspiration and guidance to the academy's students.

The ICL-Barnes partnership aims to cultivate not only exceptional tennis players but also well-rounded individuals. Students will benefit from:

Hybrid Education Model: A flexible and personalized academic schedule that allows for intensive training while ensuring academic excellence.

Mentorship and Masterclasses: Direct access to tennis legends and industry experts who will provide mentorship, share experiences, and conduct masterclasses.

Character and Leadership Development: Programs focused on building mental toughness, self-awareness, teamwork, and leadership skills.

Customized College Counseling: Personalized guidance to navigate the college application process, tailored to the unique needs of student-athletes.

"Our mission at ICL Academy is to inspire, educate, and support the next generation of young students to have a positive impact on their local and global communities," said Kirk Spahn, Founder of ICL Academy. "This partnership with Barnes Tennis Center represents a significant step towards fulfilling that mission by combining elite tennis training with a world-class academic education."

This partnership marks a new era in hybrid education and elite tennis training, offering young athletes a unique opportunity to pursue their passion for tennis while achieving academic excellence. "Join us," says Spahn, "in celebrating the launch of this transformative program, and watch as we build the champions of tomorrow."
