Starting with a tale of companionship and joy, "Hairy Krishne: Jennifer Gets Her Dog"

Joseph R. Sarbo spins a delightful tale that resonates with every child who has dreamed of bringing home a furry friend. Set against the backdrop of a house divided—where pets are strictly on the 'not wanted' list—Jennifer, an only child, sets out on a mission to convince her parents that having a dog is more than just a wish; it's a heartfelt dream.

As Sarbo eloquently explores the dynamics between parents and children when it comes to pet ownership, readers are treated to a story that blends humor with a profound lesson in perseverance. "Hairy Krishne" entertains and also educates, showing young readers the importance of presenting a compelling case and respecting family rules.

Aimed at young readers and their families, this beautifully illustrated book simplifies complex theological principles into engaging narratives that young children can easily understand.

"Toddler Theology" tells the story of God's grace through the warm and gentle voice of Jesus, using childlike concepts to explain His "really special job" at the cross and amazing love for us all.
