

Local Non-Profit to Host Largest Festival Benefiting Veterans and First Responders Ever Attempted in Bridgewater, MA

Thrive is a not for profit festival with 100% of the proceeds going to Veterans and First Responders in the area.

BRIDGEWATER, MA, UNITED STATES, August 29, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The countdown has begun for the most anticipated event of the summer—the Thrive Music Festival. This not-for-profit festival is set to bring the community together for a cause that truly matters: supporting our brave veterans and first responders. With two days of nonstop music, two stages, and a lineup that will blow you away, Thrive Music Festival is the place to be on September 20 and 21.

A Lineup That Thrills Prepare to be mesmerized by electrifying performances from some of the most talented artists around. Headliners include the soulful blues rock of GA-20, the dynamic energy of Adam Ezra Group, the coastal vibes of Crooked Coast, and the reggae rhythms of Mighty Mystic. The festival also features performances by the Blue Light Bandits, The Quins, Birch Swart Band, and many more incredible acts, ensuring there's something for every music lover.

A Festival with a Purpose Thrive Music Festival isn't just about great music—it's about making a difference. All proceeds from the event will directly benefit veterans and first responders, showing our deep appreciation for the heroes in our community. By attending, you're not only in
