

Southern Steer Butcher Expands into Georgia; Opens New Store in Alpharetta

Southern Steer Butcher is bringing the new, modern butcher experience to the Peach State

ALPHARETTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, August 29, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Southern Steer Butcher is bringing the new, modern butcher experience to the Peach State. The Florida-based neighborhood butcher shop is officially opening its first Georgia location in Alpharetta this weekend.

The new store, located at 4260 Kimball Bridge Road, is bringing the hospitality, quality, convenience, and flavor that has turned Southern Steer Butcher into a growing franchise. Alpharetta will soon be able to try Southern Steer classics like homemade sausages, gourmet burgers, juicy chicken, and their famous marinated steak tips. Southern Steer Butcher has also become known for their homemade sides and apps, like their white cheddar mac & cheese, smashed potatoes, homemade meatballs, and bacon-wrapped jalapeno poppers. The store will also offer combos, daily and seasonal specials, and meal programs for busy adults on the go.

New store owners and franchisees, Kenny and Alyson Ekmark, are “excited to bring Southern Steer Butcher to their local community and will offer some of the finest food products in the Alpharetta area.” They hope to “inspire local families, home chefs, and culinary masters” with the premium proteins, sides, appetizers, seasonings, and more that the store will offer. “I’m incredibly happy to welcome Kenny and Alyson to the Southern Steer family, and I can’t wait for them to share our products and services with the Alpharetta community,” said Greg Snyder, Founder of Southern Steer Butcher. “I’m excited to work alongside the team at the store’s Grand
