/EINPresswire.com/ -- In a bold move reflecting the evolving landscape of literature, True American Publishing \(www.trueamericanpublishing.com\) is turning its spotlight on the vibrant community of self-published authors, recognizing their unique narratives and creative potential.

True American Publishing is an American book publisher that focuses on all formats of non-fiction and fiction books with a worldwide book distribution network”

True American Publishing

As part of this initiative, True American Publishing is committed to elevating these voices by offering comprehensive media support designed specifically for self-publishing authors eager to expand their readership. By facilitating opportunities for media interviews and promotional opportunities, True American Publishing aims to not only enhance visibility but also foster meaningful connections between writers and readers.

This progressive approach underscores an unwavering belief in the power of storytelling while providing invaluable resources to amplify the impact of self-published works across diverse platforms.

Brian Anthony, director of acquisitions and promotions, says, "There are lots of self-publishing platforms out there, but most individuals who self-publish are not aware of how to get media or high-profile podcast interviews."
