The New Orleans Chapter of the National Association of Catering & Events (NACE) is excited to announce that a portion of ticket sales to the Tasty Bites of the South Competition Event will benefit the Link-Stryjewski Foundation.

“

Our local mission at NACE is to create a diverse, resilient and inviting community to help grow the Greater New Orleans catering and events industry”

*Jessica Burke, President NACE
New Orleans*

"Our local mission at NACE is to create a diverse, resilient and inviting community to help grow the Greater New Orleans catering and events industry. Events are so important to our local economy and supporting the people making events happen is what we do. Every year we host a fundraiser to help build our chapter and also give back to the community. This year we've selected as our non-profit beneficiary the Link-Stryjewski Foundation whose mission is to nourish, educate, and empower the youth of New Orleans. Our children are our future and we must do everything we can to pave the way for a better world for them.” Jessica Burke, President, National Association of Catering & Events New Orleans Chapter.

About The Link Stryjewski Foundation

The Link Stryjewski Foundation's mission is to nourish, educate and empower the youth of New Orleans. Founded by Chefs Donald Link and Stephen Stryjewski, the organization supports community partners working directly with at-risk youth, such as Youth Empowerment Project, Son of a Saint, and Clover New Orleans.

About NACE New Orleans

NACE is the oldest and largest professional association that addresses all aspects of the catering industry. Through the collective efforts of our members, committees and the Foundation, the New Orleans chapter is at the forefront of these issues.
