Founder of Florida Wine
Academy*

Kick off Miami Champagne Week 2024 with an in-depth tasting session led by Erin Jolley, Master of Wine. With her extensive experience in fine wines, Erin will guide attendees through the key aspects of champagne winemaking, including grape varieties, time en tirage, and reserve wine versus vintage character. This educational evening will also delve into essential quality factors such as mousse persistence, acidity, and fruit ripeness. Guests will taste a selection of exceptional champagnes, including examples like Champagne Deutz Brut Classic and Laherte Freres Extra Brut Ultradition.

Day 2 – Champagne Jacquart's 60th Birthday Celebration
Join us at the stunning Amara Paraiso rooftop terrace as we toast to Champagne Jacquart's 60th Birthday. This evening under the stars will feature vibrant music, local artists, and delectable food. Guests will enjoy Champagne Jacquart Brut, Rosé, and Blanc de Blanc 2015, among others, alongside passed canapés, a premium raw bar, and a sweet table. Dress in white, silver, or gold to match the festive atmosphere.

Day 3 – Champagne Pommery Dinner at Fiola

Presented by Pauline Vranken, CEO of Vranken-Pommery America, and moderated by Alessandra Esteves, DipWSET, this exclusive dinner at Fiola is a highlight of Miami Champagne Week. Champagne Pommery, renowned for its elegance and tradition, will be at the center of this extraordinary evening. Guests will explore a range of Pommery wines, including the notable 2008 vintage and Cuvée Louise 2002, paired with a gourmet menu by Fiola.

Day 4 – An Exclusive and Rare Tasting at 305 Wines (Sold Out)

The final day of Miami Champagne Week concludes with an exclusive, sold-out tasting event at 305 Wines. Presented by Alessandra Esteves, DipWSET, this extraordinary session will feature some of the most sought-after champagnes in the world. Highlights include rare vintages and unique house styles from renowned producers like Jacques Selosse, Salon and Louis Roederer Cristal.
