Written and performed by acclaimed comedian Dahéli Hall, SPADURA unapologetically takes on grief, the pressures of motherhood, the toll of IVF, as well as the unique fertility obstacles faced by Black women in America – all through humor. It is a moving love story set against the baby industrial complex. “I hope that people experiencing similar challenges know they are not alone and that SPADURA sparks conversation and lots of laughter, too!” – Dahéli

DC Theatre Arts writes SPADURA is “a tour de force.”

Entertaining Chicago lauds the show as “honest, touching, engaging, and very funny.” Winner of Best One-Woman Show and Best Production at the Spring 2023 United Solo Off-Broadway in New York and Recognized as Best of Fringe in Washington, DC. SPADURA has been enjoyed by audiences in major cities across the US: San Francisco, Los Angeles, New York, Washington DC, Chicago, and later, Miami.
