

Forest Heart by Yiqing Wu Wins Silver in A' Landscape Design Awards

Yiqing Wu's Innovative Urban Design Solution for Estonia Recognized with Prestigious A' Design Award in Landscape Planning and Garden Design Category

COMO, CO, ITALY, September 2, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The A' Design Award, a highly prestigious and well-recognized award in the field of landscape design, has announced Yiqing Wu's "Forest Heart" as the Silver Award winner in the Landscape Planning and Garden Design category. This esteemed recognition celebrates the exceptional design of "Forest Heart," an innovative urban design solution for Estonia that transforms an existing park into an emblematic public space and cultural center.

Forest Heart

The A' Landscape Planning and Garden Design Award holds significant relevance for the industry and its stakeholders. By recognizing designs like "Forest Heart," the award promotes innovation, sustainability, and the advancement of landscape design practices. This recognition not only validates the designer's expertise but also inspires others in the field to push boundaries and create spaces that positively impact communities and the environment.

"Forest Heart" stands out for its versatile and ecologically astute approach to urban design. The project aims to reinvigorate Central Park as an integrated forest park and cultural center, drawing inspiration from Estonia's rich and diverse forest landscape. By increasing tree density, incorporating natural elements like bogs for stormwater management, and creating interactive spaces for year-round activities, "Forest Heart" offers a distinctive landscape-centric design that pays homage to the nation's heritage.

The Silver A' Design Award recognition for "Forest Heart" serves as a testament to Yiqing Wu's commitment to excellence and innovation in landscape design. This achievement is expected to inspire future projects that prioritize sustainability, community engagement, and the celebration of cultural identity. As the design industry continues to evolve, "Forest Heart" sets a compelling example of how urban spaces can be transformed to foster a deeper connection between people and nature.

Forest Heart was designed by Yiqing Wu.
