In a fascinating chapter, author Tiffany Blanton discusses what will leave readers on the edge of their seats. Our latest installment unveils Demetra, Charlie, and Turr's harrowing journey as they navigate the chaos of Atlantis, which is under attack. This chapter, rich with action and emotion, showcases their relentless quest to reach King Poseidon and the heartbreaking sacrifices made along the way.

The night begins with Cree using his crystal necklace to reveal the confusion outside. Flames engulf the city as Atlanteans flee in terror. Demetra, driven by urgency, leads the group through secret passageways, avoiding the deadly Mortars. Their journey culminates at the palace, where they face the daunting task of infiltrating it, surrounded by enemies.

Inside, Demetra witnesses a chilling scene—King Poseidon, at the mercy of Mortar soldiers, led by a scarred and menacing creature from her dreams. In a desperate move, she uses a spell from the book of 'EL' to freeze time, halting the Mortars and even Poseidon. Cree's timely intervention with the Trident revives Poseidon, and they flee to the Crystal Healing Cavern.

In a poignant turn, Poseidon, seeing the destruction of his kingdom, sacrifices himself to empower Demetra, leaving her with his Trident and a renewed sense of purpose. This chapter not only advances the narrative but also delves deep into themes of sacrifice, resilience, and the unyielding fight for justice.
