

BRIL, the Brilliantcrypto Token To List on Global Crypto Exchange Bit2Me on September 10th

Brilliantcrypto has announced that the BRIL will be listed on the global cryptocurrency exchange "Bit2Me" on September 10th.

MINATO, TOKYO, JAPAN, September 3, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Brilliantcrypto, Inc. (Headquarters: Minato-ku, Tokyo; CEO: Naruatsu Baba; hereinafter referred to as 'Brilliantcrypto') has announced that the BRIL token issued by the game Brilliantcrypto will be listed on the global cryptocurrency exchange "Bit2Me" (CEO: Leif Ferreira, Headquarters: Spain) on September 10th.

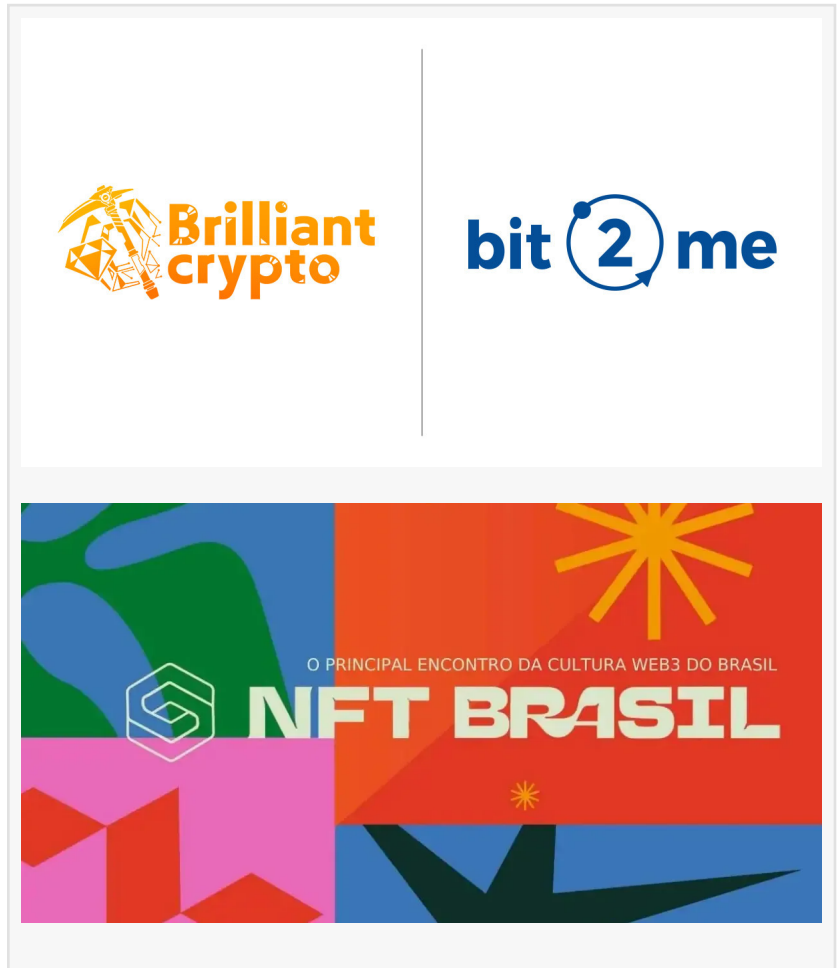

With this listing, the BRIL token will be listed in various countries served by Bit2Me.

Additionally, in conjunction with this listing, BRIL points in the Brazil region will be converted to BRIL, and users there will be able to earn tokens directly through the game, just as they do in Japan. This is expected to further expand the user base in Brazil.*

To commemorate this listing, Brilliantcrypto will deliver a special presentation at NFT Brazil which will be held in São Paulo, Brazil, on September 12-13.

With the collaboration with Bit2Me, Brilliantcrypto will continue to increase awareness in the Latin American region where many Brilliantcrypto game users are located.

*Note: In countries other than Brazil where BRIL is tradeable, the process where BRIL points are converted to BRIL, and users become able to earn BRIL directly in the game will only occur once local regulatory investigations are completed and it is confirmed that there are no issues with acquiring cryptocurrency in those regions.
