mapping, and will be a first-ever NFT 'drop' for TAS Visuals. He considers this a way to give back to a community he directly credits for his world acclaim as an artist. Ahead of the opening act, an MC will introduce the Futuro Nativo founder Philippa Attwood, who provided the recordings from deep within the Amazon (with the help of the Shipibo) that Savej uses in the NFT music. The short talk by Ms. Attwood will provide an opportunity for after-party attendees to learn how their bids amplify the Shipibo community through the work of Futuro Nativo.

Interested bidders have the opportunity to place offers on the individual art-music pieces or the full collection. The limited-edition 4-piece NFT collection is a unique collaboration. Each piece offers supporters a chance to own a TAS exclusive digital art piece and to contribute to Futuro Nativo's mission of protecting Nature through reforestation and fostering a deeper connection between the Western world and Indigenous cultures.
