One satisfied customer, Phillip, shared his experience: "It's hard to find a better deal than offered here, or better service than Jaxon provided, anywhere in Pdx or the greater surrounding area. The price to quality ratio of their flower and other offerings always impresses me. I used to frequent the Kaleafa in Beaverton but fell off when I stopped commuting to that area. Then they built the new location in Tigard and I stopped by, and left wondering how I ever shopped at other dispensaries after experiencing Kaleafa. I had help from Jaxon and was really grateful to have someone so friendly and knowledgeable as my budtender, and every product that I left with was perfect. Also a big shout out to them for the pride they take in the farms they purvey from, I will definitely be going here for the foreseeable future."
