TiniFiber Announces Tom Artinian as Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

River Partners, commented: "The board is delighted to have Tom Artinian join as CEO. He not only has an exceptional track record, but also the strategic vision and the industry relationships to further accelerate TiniFiber's growth."

Nathan Chandrasekaran added: "We would also like to give a heartfelt thank you to Tom Brown and Christian Peterson. In May, Tom Brown stepped into the role of president following the unexpected passing of Steve Shultis and the board is delighted to have him remain as a senior member of the leadership team. Similarly Christian has played a vital role in building the original foundation and his unique vision behind TiniFiber and the company is in a very strong position as a result of his leadership. As Chairman, Christian will continue to provide invaluable strategic advice and industry knowledge."

Tom Artinian said: "TiniFiber's technology is truly innovative and brings significant benefits to a huge range of industries, from data centers to industrial manufacturing and from transport hubs to commercial facilities. I look forward to working closely with its great team to help it grow into key international markets."

About TiniFiber®:

TiniFiber is an award-winning and U.S. Patented innovator redefining industry standards with its Micro Armor Fiber™ Cable. TiniFiber's Micro Armor Fiber is 65% smaller and 75% lighter than traditional Aluminum Interlock Armor (AIA) and offers exceptional flexibility as well as ease of installation.
