"I'm excited to see how the film resonates with audiences and to celebrate this moment with the talented cast and crew." The event will be a gathering of industry professionals, celebrities, and film enthusiasts coming together to celebrate the art of independent cinema.

Written, composed, performed, and produced by Spearman himself, SkopeMag.com gave this review, of "No Driver". "The track consists of a diverse range of styles, innovative effects, and distinctive sounds which might just drive the listeners into the unknown streets of Frisco. Spearman successfully and brilliantly fuses rock and 1980's African American dance music.

The drums quickly hit the gas on this track as they are continuous, incessant, and insanely hypnotizing. The guitar is extremely seductive, distorted, groovy, and most importantly: danceable. Similar to Bernard Sumner and Michael Ronson, Ronkat's guitar playing is not only glamorous but also sophisticated. Towards the end of the track, the funky side of the guitar begins appearing and delivers a funkadelic and boogielicious sensation."

His upcoming EP Kattitude is scheduled for release this month September 20th., 2024.
