Te Yu Liu and Hui-Ching Chang's Secluded Beauty in the Mountains Recognized for Excellence in Interior Design by Prestigious A' Design Awards

COMO, CO, ITALY, September 5, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The esteemed A' Design Award, one of the world's most respected design competitions, has announced Secluded Beauty in the Mountains by Te Yu Liu and Hui-Ching Chang as a Silver winner in the Interior Space and Exhibition Design category. This prestigious recognition underscores the exceptional quality and innovation of the design within the interior design industry.

Secluded Beauty in the Mountains showcases the importance of thoughtful interior design in fostering communication and emotional connections among residents. By aligning with current trends and needs in the industry, such as incorporating functional facilities and artistic elements, this design demonstrates the practical benefits of well-executed interior spaces for users and stakeholders alike.

The award-winning design stands out for its masterful use of Japanese aesthetics, seamlessly integrating the works of renowned ceramicist Mr. Liu Jung Hui. The carefully crafted common areas, including a sophisticated lobby with wooden grilles and a captivating lounge bar blending Kyoto and modern styles, create a serene sanctuary that allows residents to unwind and rejuvenate from the bustling urban life.

This recognition from the A' Interior Space, Retail and Exhibition Design Award serves as an
