

Best seller Writer Hazel Ortega's Global Tour and New Project "Mujer Salvaje" Seek to Empower Latin Women Worldwide

Hazel Ortega Uses Her Platform to Ignite Global Change and Inspire Vulnerable Communities Through Her Experience and Knowledge

HOLLYWOOD , CA, UNITED STATES, September 6, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hazel Ortega, an international speaker, psychologist, and author of the bestseller "From Bounced Checks to Private Jets", is taking solid steps across the globe this summer with her motivational tour and groundbreaking new project aimed at empowering Latina women.

Currently on a global tour, Ortega is visiting various cities including Mexico City, Turkey, and Egypt, where she shares her own inspirational and transformational journey with audiences from around the world. Her tour, which will continue through late September in Mexico City, is designed to benefit social causes and inspire entrepreneurial minds.

Hazel is deeply involved in social projects, such as her work with the re-entry program at San Quentin Prison, and is planning to extend similar efforts in Mexico City during this summer and fall. These projects reflect her commitment to helping individuals rebuild their lives and reintegrate into society.

But perhaps one of the most exciting aspects of her current work is her role as the driving force behind Mujer Salvaje (Wild Woman), a compilation book that will feature the most exceptional stories from Latina women. This anthology will present 13 powerful stories of struggle, survival, and triumph, highlighting the resilience and strength of Latina women.

Hazel is on the lookout for the most inspiring tales of resilience and strength of Latin women. Hazel is on the lookout for the most inspiring tales from Latino female writers to include in the book, which will serve as a beacon of empowerment for women worldwide.

Hazel is curating stories for Mujer Salvaje, a compilation of 13 powerful stories from Latin women that will inspire and empower women across the globe and she is not only expanding into the Spanish-speaking Latino market but also elevating the voices of Latin women, ensuring their stories of resilience and transformation reach a global audience.

Through this new project, she continues her mission of empowering women to step into their own power and share their remarkable journeys with the world.
