

New Castle School of Trades Students to receive $140,000 in Scholarships

NCST will recognize more than 50 scholarship recipients on Tuesday, September 10th

NEW CASTLE, PA, UNITED STATES, September 5, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- New Castle School of Trades, one of the region's largest and most respected trade and technical institutions, will recognize students with over $140,000 in scholarships.

This incredible opportunity is made possible by the generous support of America's Trades Foundation, corporate sponsors, civic organizations, and local individuals. The scholarships will help current NCST students as they pursue rewarding careers in the skilled trades.

NCST President Rex Spaulding recognizes a Scholarship recipient

Our annual Scholarship Day, which has awarded over $250,000 in the last two years, allows us to further support students and graduates as they start their professional journeys”

Rex Spaulding, President

"For more than 75 years, New Castle School of Trades has been equipping men and women with the skills needed for rewarding, in-demand careers across a range of skilled trades. Our annual Scholarship Day, which has awarded over $250,000 in the last two years, allows us to further support students and graduates as they start their professional journeys," said Rex Spaulding, President.

"We are deeply grateful for the overwhelming support from America's Trades Foundation and numerous organizations across the region. Thanks to their dedication, we are proud to recognize over 50 scholarship recipients at NCST," said Dennis Corrado, School Director. "These scholarships provide crucial financial assistance and honor students for their consistent academic excellence. This collaboration between industry and education exemplifies how we can collectively nurture the next generation of skilled tradespeople," he added.

NCST will officially celebrate its 2024 Scholarship Day on Tuesday, September 10th at 12 noon. The event will be held at the main campus at 4117 Pulaski Road, New Castle, PA 16101. The event is open to the public, and more than 400 students, their families, and industry leaders are expected to attend.
