-- Are you longing to feel joyful, healthy, and truly alive? We are all on a life's journey, each with a unique set of challenges. Along the way we experience good and bad times, ups and downs, highs and lows, and personal traumas. Such turmoil can cause depression and anxiety but did you also know it is causing blocks in our chakras and these negative emotions actually become lodged in our bodies and become the underlying cause of many devastating diseases that block us from living our best lives? Instead of seeking ways to numb our pain through medication or maladaptive habits, clearing these blocks can remove toxins and impurities so we can finally live more balanced, meaningful, joyful healthy lives.

Angie Marks is well-known as a Spiritual Healer, clairvoyant, and empath. A deeply spiritual and intuitive person sought by many who are looking for clarity and peace of mind in the midst of today's challenging, chaotic times, she helps us purify our spirit, mind, and body from negative energy so we live with greater clarity and purpose.

Although many authentic psychics use their connection to the spiritual realm to provide us with basic answers, Angie takes her work to a whole new level offering us self-healing tools and much needed guidance.

Now more than ever, we are all urgently seeking answers as we struggle with pressing life issues and emotional wounds. As an Intuitive Healer, she uses her incredible gifts to be in tune with our energy bringing balance so we can face life with more ease, resilience, and a fresh healthy perspective.

Angie emphasizes how we are traumatized imperfect people raised by traumatized imperfect people and we need to break that pattern so we can collectively live as one in light and love.

With over 20 years of experience in spiritual science and psychic abilities, Angie expertly analyzes our electromagnetic field to find out what, who, and why our energy has been blocked. She emphasizes how as humans we are actually vibrating in unique electromagnetic waves. Thus our physical health and emotional issues are related to energy blocks or imbalances. With Angie's help in clearing these negative energy levels, we can let go of past traumas and move forward towards healthier, happier, abundant lives.

Angie also specializes in love and relationships. By tapping into one's energy, emotions, & higher self she is able to identify the true intentions and feelings of our loved ones and see exactly what or who came between you and if the relationship is meant to move forward or not. She also helps us clear any forms of negative energy that might be affecting our love life/relationship and determines if there is a true connection. She gives us the insight, guidance, and answers to end all confusion, regrets, and the feeling of the unknown.

Her psychic healing is using her natural gifts and intuitive nature to heal us mind, body, and spirit. By making certain our energies are properly balanced we restore harmonious flow and
