LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, September 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bestselling author Kay A. Oliver, known for her gripping crime thrillers and suspenseful storytelling, is set to release her latest novel, "Five Pounds of Pressure", on September 23rd. This highly anticipated second installment in the Shaws Investigation series promises to be an adrenaline-pumping journey filled with complex characters, dark secrets, and a relentless pursuit of justice.

"Five Pounds of Pressure" continues the legacy of the award-winning "Sisters in Cold Blood," which received critical acclaim and two literary awards for excellence. In the first thriller, Keri Shaw—a determined amateur sleuth in the vein of Nancy Drew—uncovers a chilling 1909 confession letter from a serial killer who evaded justice. As Keri digs deeper, she discovers that the missing women mentioned in the letter were never found alive. Now, she must navigate a treacherous path, retracing the killer's steps to uncover long-buried secrets. But the closer Keri gets to the truth, the more dangerous her mission becomes. Can she bring these women home, or will she become the next victim?

For readers who love mystery books and crime thrillers, the "Sisters In Cold Blood Free Clues Companion Book" offers an interactive experience. Fans can follow Keri's investigation in greater detail, analyzing clues and tracing the killer's path themselves, making this series a must-read for amateur detectives and true crime enthusiasts alike.

"I wanted to write a thriller that not only engages but deeply resonates with readers," says Oliver. "Five Pounds of Pressure explores the limits of human resilience and the courage it takes to face
