The AI + Greentech event will bring together leading innovators, entrepreneurs, and industry experts to explore the powerful intersection of artificial intelligence and green technology. The event will feature speaker presentations, entrepreneur pitches, and networking opportunities; all focused on showcasing how AI can drive sustainable solutions and foster environmental innovation.

Event Highlights Include:

- Speaker Presentations: Attendees will hear from prominent voices in AI and Greentech who will share insights on leveraging technology to address pressing environmental challenges, optimise resource management, and promote sustainable practices.

- Entrepreneur Pitches: Emerging startups can pitch their innovative ideas and AI-driven solutions for sustainability. This segment will highlight groundbreaking technologies ranging from renewable energy optimisation and intelligent agriculture to AI-based waste management and carbon reduction tools.

- Networking Sessions: The event will also feature networking sessions to facilitate meaningful connections among attendees. Participants will have the chance to engage with like-minded professionals, explore potential collaborations, and discuss new opportunities for innovation in the Greentech space.
