

“IF THAT MOCKINGBIRD DON’T SING” TO MAKE NEW YORK PREMIERE AT SOHO FILM FESTIVAL

19-Year-Old Sadie Bones Debuts Her First Feature As Screenwriter, Director & Actor in Hometown

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, September 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sadie Bones, a 19-year-old triple threat in the world of filmmaking as a screenwriter, director, and actor, will celebrate the New York premiere of IF THAT MOCKINGBIRD DON'T SING at the SoHo Film Festival where the film will screen in THEATER 1 at Village East by Angelika on September 22 at 7:00 p.m. Immediately following the screening will be a Q&A panel.

17-year-old Sydnie (Aitana Doyle) discovers she's pregnant with her high school boyfriend Lucas's (Braxton Fannin) baby during her gap year. Hoping to win him back from college, she decides to keep it. Lucas's religious mom forces him home, and though initially angry, he sees the baby as a chance to start over. They cautiously reunite, but Sydnie soon realizes their long-term goals clash. Meanwhile, she meets Daniel (Andrew Michael Fama), the charming lead singer of "Delusions of Grandeur." Dating a touring musician conflicts with raising a baby, and the idea of being a teenage stay-at-home mom loses its appeal. Torn between Lucas and the exciting opportunity with Daniel, Sydnie, who also faces competition from Daniel's maybe-girlfriend, must choose: keep the baby and stay with Lucas, or chase her dreams and follow Daniel.

IF THAT MOCKINGBIRD DON'T SING is written and directed by Sadie Bones. Mandy Ward, p.g.a is the Producer, and Elizabeth Berridge is the Executive Producer.
