

Mary José SS25 Runway Show Takes a Stand for Girls Education at New York Fashion Week

Fashion week - One to watch this Season

TIMES SQUARE, NY, UNITED STATES, September 10, 2024 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Last Friday, Luxury French designer Mary José unveil their Spring/ Summer 2025 collection at New York Fashion week powered by Runway 7. The show was not just an ordinary display of fashion and glamour. The show featured a diverse cast of models, showcased the brand's latest collection while also highlighting the importance of equal education for women and girls. The brand made a powerful statement yesterday by using their runway show as a platform to bring awareness to global dysfunction and advocate for equal education for girls.

The models walked the runway in bold and empowering pieces. Mary José's art director, Geovanie Dianda, stated, "We believe that fashion has the power to make a statement and bring about change. Our runway shows are not just about showcasing our designs, but also about using our platform to shed light on important issues and spark conversations."

The brand's commitment to using fashion as a means of activism was evident. The Mary José'
